Title BUDDHISM, MORMONISM, AND ME

Presenter TRACIE A. LAMB's personal essays have been published in SUNSTONE and Dialogue. She edited the memoirs of her mission president, Yearning for the Living God, published by Deseret Book. She is researching her great-grandfather and his wives—a Shoshone woman and a daughter of a prominent Mormon pioneer.

10:00 AM–10:45 AM

Title WHICH PERSONA IS IN CHARGE? THE MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES OF WAYNE BOOTH'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Abstract My essay explores what contribution autobiography might make to the illumination of Mormon history and culture. I chose Wayne C. Booth's My Many Selves—The Quest for a Plausible Harmony because it demonstrates the influence a Mormon boyhood exerted upon the career of one of the twentieth century's most influential literary theorists; and because in it the author invented a new kind of autobiography. Booth judges his life so unexceptional that he doesn't treat it chronologically, choosing instead to organize chapters around his internal conflicts, ambivalences, and self-contradictions. The result: a chaotic but absorbing account of an intelligent, humane, and fascinating personality.

Presenter LEVI PETERSON was a professor of English at Weber State University. He is the author of several books, including The Backslider and an autobiography, A Rascal by Nature, A Christian by Yearning.

11:00 AM–12:15 PM

---

Title PERSPECTIVES ON WOMEN AND ORDINATION

Abstract Women's ordination has been a hot topic among Mormons in 2013. This panel will discuss women's ordination in early Christianity, in other Restoration churches, recent activism by the group Ordain Women, and what the path toward ordination might look like for LDS women.

Panelists FRANCES LEE MENLOVE, SUSAN D. (SKOOR) OXLEY, NATALIE HAMILTON KELLY, AND MARY ELLEN ROBERTSON

12:15 PM–12:30 PM
