All entries must be original works of self-portrait related to the Symposium's theme: The Mormon Mind. Artwork in any medium will be accepted including, but not limited to sculpture, photography, computer-generated images, etc.

All two-dimensional (flat) entries must be matted, mounted, or framed, and ready to be hung. All items to be entered must be finished before being submitted.

Sunstone reserves the right to reject any work, including, but not limited to, works that may be physically hazardous, a nuisance, a copyright infringement, libelous, or offensive to community standards.

Please contact exhibit curators if you have any questions.

Sunstone reserves the right to choose the artwork's display area. Most works will be displayed on tables or easels.

This exhibit is NOT juried.

Artists who wish to sell prints or other merchandise must purchase a Symposium vendor table at www.sunstonemagazine.com/handcrafters-row. The fee allows you to use a table for all three days of the Symposium.

Artwork should be removed from the Symposium between the hours of 5 pm and 7pm of Saturday, 1 August.

By signing this form, you agree to not hold the Sunstone Education Foundation or the University of Utah liable for any damage to or loss of your work. If you are concerned for the safety of a piece of artwork, please enter a print of the work instead. Insurance for all works is the responsibility of the artist.

By signing and dating below, you are agreeing to all the terms and conditions outlined above.
