MORMON EXPERIENCE, SCHOLARSHIP, ISSUES, AND ART

September 1992

Volume 16:3

Issue 89

SUNSTONE (ISSN 0363-1370) is published by the Sunstone Foundation, a non-profit corporation with no official connection to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Articles represent the attitudes of the writers only and not necessarily those of the editors or the LDS church.

Submissions may be on computer diskettes, IBM-PC compatible, and written in WordPerfect format, or on double-spaced typed, manuscripts. Submissions should not exceed nine thousand words and must be accompanied by a signed cover letter giving permission for the manuscript to be filed in the Sunstone collection at the University of Utah Marriott Library Archives (all literary rights are retained by the author). Unsolicited manuscripts will not be returned; authors will be notified concerning acceptance within sixty days.

SUNSTONE is interested in feature- and column-length articles relevant to Mormonism from a variety of perspectives; news stories about Mormons and the LDS church, and poetry, psalms, and limericks. Short stories are selected only through the annual Brookie and D. K. Brown Memorial Fiction Contest (submission deadline: 1 June 1993). All fiction submissions will be considered as contest entries.

Letters for publication should be addressed to "Readers' Forum." SUNSTONE does not acknowledge receipt of letters to the editor. Letters addressed to specific authors will be forwarded unopened to them.

Upon request, SUNSTONE will not provide a subscriber's address to mail solicitors.
