SUNSTONE (ISSN0363-1370) is published by The Sunstone Foundation, a non-profit corporation with no official connection to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Articles represent the opinions of the writers only and not necessarily those of the editors or the LDS church.

Submissions may be on IBM-PC compatible computer diskettes, written in WordPerfect format, or on double-spaced typed manuscripts. Submissions should not exceed 9,000 words and must be accompanied by a signed letter giving permission for the manuscript to be filed in the Sunstone collection at the University of Utah Marriott Library Archives (all literary rights are retained by the author). Manuscripts will not be returned; authors will be notified concerning acceptance within sixty days.

SUNSTONE is interested in feature- and column-length articles relevant to Mormonism from a variety of perspectives, news stories about Mormons and the LDS church, and psalms and limericks.

Poetry submissions must be in triplicate, one poem per page with the poet's name and address on each page; a self-addressed, stamped envelope should accompany each submission.

Short stories are selected only through the annual Brookie and D. K. Brown Memorial Fiction Contest (submission deadline: 1 June 1995). All fiction submissions will be considered as contest entries.

Letters for publication should be addressed to "Readers' Forum." SUNSTONE does not acknowledge receipt of letters to the editor. Letters addressed to specific authors will be forwarded, unopened, to them.

Upon request by subscribers, SUNSTONE will not provide a subscriber's address to mail solicitors.
